

Finance Bank
ASOLUTE BANK SECRECY SINCE 1960

Offshore Bank Accounts

Offshore bank accounts are gaining huge popularity day-by-day due to their depositor friendly features and ease of access from any location. There are so many countries that are providing services for offshore banking and allow users from almost every other country. The biggest benefit of having an offshore bank account is that here your details are kept confidential and they are never ever revealed to any third party. No matter how much money you are saving in your offshore account, your details will always be safe and the tax liabilities are always minimum that you won't even notice. If you are still thinking about whether it is good to have an offshore bank account or not then following details will help you to make right decision.

10 important reasons that prove you must have an offshore bank account:

Dilution of Political Risk:

One of the biggest risk to your savings in today's market arises from your own government as they keep frequent check on money deposits of individuals and track all records for this collection whether it is from authenticated resources or not. The rules in most of countries are very strict regarding savings, so it becomes best option to save your money in foreign bank accounts where no one can access your details of being a depositor to any big or small amount.

Sound banking policies:

Offshore banking services are generally available in those countries where banking systems are sounder with policies for account managements are user friendly. Most of these jurisdictions allow depositors to save money with very high interest rates whereas tax payable is very less. These banks provide stronger custody to your personal savings and it can be accessed by the account holder only.

Better protection of assets:

We always desire 100% protection for our assets because they are earned with hardcore efforts. Some lawsuits in countries do not provide better protections to personal assets thus people make better choices by making their accounts in offshore banks where things are 100% protected.

Diversification of currencies:

These bank accounts provide you best way to access your money from any location of world where you need not to worry about type of currency of the country that you are traveling at any particular time. Offshore bank accounts are accessible from any location of world via internet banking and money can be easily transferred within fraction of seconds. The best thing to know is that these banks do not pose any limit over your number of deposits or withdrawal so users feel free to access their money as per requirement.

Higher interest rates:

With offshore bank accounts, users are free to avail higher interest rates on their savings. Most of banks allow users to save money without any tax payments and even if some have tax terms then the amount is very less. In such conditions to enjoy higher interest rates becomes more interesting thing. Your savings starts working like a source of earning for you and your assets keep on multiplying with time.

Medical care facilities:

In case if you are not able to get proper treatment for any medical emergency in your home country then offshore accounts provide you benefit of availing medical facilities in any other country without worrying about payments. These banks provide easy and fast access of money so users can stay free of tension regarding emergency needs.

Freedom to act quickly:

The benefit of international banking service and access to money from any location of world leads to freedom in money utilization. As these savings can be accessed in any currency form so user becomes free to take fast decisions about his funds and can control as well as protect money as per his needs.

Maintain Privacy:

No matter how much money you have kept in your offshore bank account; your details will be always hidden and you will be able to access your savings without any restriction. The report time is very flexible that is at least once a year as per user's time schedule and no details are reveled to any third party.

Peace of mind:

This is the biggest benefit of having offshore bank account that you need not to worry about safety of your deposits as they are at most safe place of world. No need to worry about government agencies or any regulatory policies as your details are hidden and your money is safe.

Enjoy life with ease finances:

Offshore bank accounts allow you to visit any location of world or make investments anywhere as per your choice without making any restriction on your money usage. It helps depositors to enjoy freedom of finances and one can feel independent in terms of money. It becomes much easier to control destiny with such freedom.